

82. NHF, as the seller of mortgage loans, agreed to certain "Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Seller" in Article 6 of the Agreement, including the representation that all information in the loan applications prepared by NHF was true and correct. NHF has breached its representations because the loan applications contained falsely inflated appraisals and other false information.

83. Plaintiff has notified NHF of its breach of the Agreement and its obligation to repurchase said mortgage loans. NHF has refused to repurchase said mortgage loans, in violation of Article 6 of the Agreement.

84. By reason of the foregoing facts, plaintiff has been damaged in excess of $1,000,000.00.

WHEREFORE, on this COUNT, plaintiff prays that the Court find and determine that the NHF is liable to it for breach of contract and award damages, attorneys fees and other such relief as may be appropriate.

COUNT V.

BREACH OF CONTRACT BY THE TITLE INSURANCE DEFENDANTS

85. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation of paragraphs 1 through 84 as if fully set forth herein.

86. In conjunction with real property transactions involving the NHF/Cristo Property Enterprise, borrowers of mortgage loans from plaintiff obtained title insurance from the Title Insurance Defendants. The Title Insurance Defendants, in exchange for valuable consideration, provided Walsh Securities with closing service letters covering the conduct of the Closing Attorneys, who were specifically approved by the Title Insurance Defendants. Walsh

Securities, required such closing service letters as a pre-condition to its agreeing to provide the mortgage loans.

87. Pursuant to these closing service letters, the Title Insurance Defendants are required to reimburse plaintiff for losses arising out of, among other things, fraud or misapplication by the Closing Attorneys. True and correct copies of sample closing service letters from each Title Insurance Defendant are attached as Exhibits A, B and C.

88. The Closing Attorneys engaged in fraud and misapplication in connection with the NHF/Cristo Property Enterprise. Among other things, the Closing Attorneys fraudulently transferred mortgage loan proceeds knowing that the following pre-conditions to closings imposed by Walsh Securities, among others, had not been satisfied: (1) the borrowers and Cristo Property had not entered into a bona fide sales contract with a bona fide sales price as required for closing; (2) the borrowers had not paid the downpayment or deposit required for closing; (3) Cristo Properties and the borrowers had not entered into a bona fide second mortgage as required for closing; and (4) the borrowers had not paid certain closing expenses required for closing. Walsh Securities has incurred substantial loss as a result of the fraud and/or misapplication by the Closing Attorneys.

89. Plaintiff has duly performed all of its obligations under the closing service letters of the Title Insurance Defendants and has notified the Title Insurance Defendants of its losses as a result of the fraud and/or misapplication by the Closing Attorneys.

90. The Title Insurance Defendants have failed to reimburse plaintiff for the losses it has incurred based on the fraud and/or misapplication of the approved attorneys as covered by the closing service letters.

91. By reason of the foregoing facts, plaintiff has been damaged in excess of $1,000,000.00.

WHEREFORE, on this COUNT, plaintiff prays that the Court find and determine that the Title Insurance Defendants are liable to it for breach of contract and award damages, attorneys fees and other such relief as may be appropriate.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment against:

1. All RICO defendants jointly and severally awarding plaintiff the following relief:

(a) Compensatory and consequential damages in an amount as yet undetermined, trebled pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1964(c); and

(b) Costs of this action, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1964(c); and

(c) An award of punitive damages as a result of defendants' fraud; and

(d) Other such relief as is just and equitable;

2. NHF awarding plaintiff the following relief:

(e) Compensatory and consequential damages in an amount as yet undetermined, and

(f) Costs of this action, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and

(g) Other such relief as is just and equitable.

3. All the Title Insurance Defendants awarding plaintiff the following relief:

- (h) Compensatory and consequential damages in an amount as yet undetermined, and
- (i) Costs of this action, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and
- (j) Other such relief as is just and equitable.

DEMAND FOR A JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff hereby demands a jury for all issues for which it has a right to a trial by jury.

Any and all requirements as to the completion of onsite or offsite improvements and as to the disbursement of any escrow funds therefore have been complied with.

(h) Each Note and Security Instrument is valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms and will be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms by Buyer after Buyer's purchase. Each Note and the related mortgage are genuine.

(o) Seller has no knowledge of any condition, term or subject related to the Obligor, the mortgaged property, or the loan file which could reasonably be expected (1) to cause private institutional investors to regard the Mortgage Loan as an unacceptable investment; or (2) to cause the Mortgage Loan to become delinquent; or (3) to adversely affect the value or marketability of the Mortgage Loan; or (4) to violate any of Buyer's Underwriting Guidelines (except as disclosed in the Mortgage File).

(p) If Seller is a corporation or partnership it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under appropriate state laws, and has full power and authority to own its properties and carry on its business as it is now being conducted and is duly qualified to transact business as a foreign corporation in all states where such qualification is required.

(v) All real estate appraisals made in connection with each Loan shall have been performed in accordance with the Buyer's Underwriting Guidelines on a form approved by FNMA or FHLMC and The Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, and with industry standards in the appraising industry in the area where the appraised property is located. Each appraiser has been previously approved by the Buyer.

(w) Each Loan is a closed loan or a concurrently funded loan by Seller. The proceeds of each loan have been fully disbursed.

(x) Each loan conforms with the requirements of the Program Documents.

(y) Seller shall repurchase any Loan if a subsequent audit determines any fraudulent acts or misrepresentation of Seller, its correspondents, prior Note Holders or any of their agents is contained in the Loan file that supported the credit underwriting decision.

(z) If the residential property is in an area identified in the Federal Register by the Federal Emergency Management Agency as having special flood hazards, a flood insurance policy in a form meeting the requirements of the current guidelines of the Flood Insurance Administration is in effect with respect to such residential property with a generally acceptable carrier in an amount representing coverage not less than the least of (i) the original outstanding principal balance of the loan, (ii) the minimum amount required to compensate for damage or loss on a replacement cost basis or (iii) the maximum amount of insurance that is available under the Flood Disaster Protection Act or that is available under the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973.

6.02 Survival of Representations, Warranties and Covenants' Breach of Warranty

It is understood and agreed that the representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement including but not limited to those representations and warranties set forth in this Article shall survive the execution of this Agreement and the purchase of Loans hereunder. Seller shall be responsible for the acts of its agents, employees, correspondents, brokers, and prior Note Holders. Upon discovery by either Seller or Buyer of any breach of any said representations and warranties, which in any way adversely affects the Buyer, the party discovering such breach shall give prompt written notice to the other. Within 60 days of its receipt of notice of breach, Seller shall at Buyer's option cure such breach, or repurchase the Loan from Buyer. Any such repurchase by Seller shall be at a repurchase price equal to the then outstanding principal balance of such Loan, or, where each loan is purchased by Buyer at a premium over par, the unpaid principal balance multiplied by par plus the premium together with interest at the Note Rate for such Loan for the period from the date to which such interest was last paid and remitted to the date of such repurchase. It is understood and agreed that the obligation of the Seller to repurchase any Loans as to which a breach has occurred shall not constitute the exclusive remedy respecting such breach available to Buyer, but Buyer shall have recourse to any other remedy for breach of warranty at law or in equity.

ARTICLE 7 REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND COVENANTS OF BUYERS

Buyer hereby represents, warrants and covenants to Seller as follows:

(a) Buyer is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware, and has full corporate power and authority to own its properties and carry on its business as it is now being conducted.

(b) Buyer has the corporate power to enter into this Agreement, and the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by the necessary corporate action of Buyer, and this Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of Buyer, enforceable in accordance with its terms. Buyer has obtained any and all necessary consents of third parties required of it in order to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and the execution and delivery of this Agreement and performance by Buyer of the transactions contemplated hereby will not result in Buyer being in default under any of the provisions of its Certificate of Incorporation, By-Laws or of any material credit or other agreement to which it is a party.

ARTICLE 8 INDEMNIFICATION

8.01 Seller agrees to protect, indemnify, and hold Buyer and its employees, officers, and directors, harmless against, and in respect of, any and all losses, liabilities, costs and expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, damages, claims, counterclaims, demands, actions or proceedings, by whomsoever asserted, including but not limited to, the Obligors, any person or persons who prosecute or defend any actions or proceedings as representatives of or on behalf of a class or interested group, or any governmental instrumentality, body, agency department or commission, or any administrative body or agency having jurisdiction pursuant to any applicable statute, rule, regulation, order or decree, or the settlement or compromise of any of the foregoing, providing, however, any of the foregoing arises out of, is connected with or results from any breach of representations, covenants or warranties made by Seller in relation to the Loans sold to Buyer hereunder.

8.02 Provided further, in the event of any legal action, including counterclaims, wherein the claim is based upon alleged facts that would constitute a breach of any one or more of the warranties, covenants, and representations made or assumed by Seller under the terms hereof, Seller shall thereupon, at Buyer's option, repurchase without recourse such Loan at a price equal to the then outstanding principal balance of such Loan, or, where such loan is purchased by Buyer at a premium over par, the unpaid principal balance multiplied by par plus such premium together with interest at the Note Rate for such Loan for the period from the date to which interest was last paid and remitted to the date of repurchase.

ARTICLE 9 RESCISSIION

9.01 The Seller shall be responsible in the event of a rescission or cancellation by any borrower on any loan submitted by Seller. The parties specifically agree as follows:

- a. Should any borrower of a loan sold pursuant to this Agreement exercise its right of rescission under any state or federal law, including but not limited to the borrower's rights under Section 226.23(d) of the Federal Truth-in-Lending (Regulation Z) Law, then without regard for who is the "creditor" or lender of the loan, the Seller, (and not Buyer) shall be responsible for making all payments required by law to the borrower who has exercised its right of rescission. Buyer will co-operate with the Seller by returning to the borrower all funds paid by the borrower to Buyer in connection with the loan and further by executing such documents as shall reasonably be required by the Seller in order to release the lien of Buyer upon the borrower's Mortgaged Property.
- b. The Seller shall immediately provide notice to the Buyer, by fax or telephone, in the event that notice of rescission is received.
- c. Upon exercise of a right of rescission by a borrower, the Seller shall within two (2) business days after it receives notice of the rescission by a borrower, pay to borrower all amounts required in order to comply fully and completely with the law or regulation granting a right of rescission, including but not limited to application fees, commitment fees, title search fees, appraisal fees, credit report fees or costs and counsel fees, with the exception of those amounts which Buyer has received and is obligated to return pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

- d. In the event loan proceeds have been disbursed by the Buyer prior to receipt by Buyer of the borrowers election to exercise a right of rescission, the Seller will make every effort to recover those proceeds from the payee(s).

ARTICLE 10

10.01 Buyer is purchasing the Loan(s) without recourse and warranties, other than the representations, warranties, and covenants of Seller as stated in this Agreement, and Seller is not a guarantor of the Obligor(s), their assignees or successors in interest.

ARTICLE 11 RELIANCE BY BOTH

Seller acknowledges that Buyer, in purchasing Loans from Seller, will rely upon Loan File documents and information prepared or provided by Seller including but not limited to customer credit data, account ledger cards, real property appraisals, title insurance policies, insurance policies protecting the collateral and other data and information provided to Buyer by Seller including but not limited to the representations, covenants and warranties contained herein, irrespective of any inspection or knowledge on Buyer's part of any such data and information.

ARTICLE 12 PERFORMANCE AND POWER OF ATTORNEY

In order to enforce Buyer's rights hereunder, Seller shall, upon the request of Buyer or its assigns, do and perform or cause to be done and performed, every reasonable act and thing necessary or advisable to put Buyer in a position to enforce the payment of the loans and to carry out the intent of this Agreement, including the execution of a limited power of attorney and, the recordation of additional documents including separate endorsements and assignments upon request of Buyer.

ARTICLE 13 BROKERAGE AND OTHER FEES THIRD PARTY

Seller hereby assumes responsibility for any and all brokerage or Finder's fees or agent's commissions or any similar payments whatsoever called, due on any transaction between Seller and Buyer or other like payments, that may or can be claimed as a result of this Agreement, it being understood that the purchase price of the Loans purchased by Buyer from Seller as set forth in Article 3 herein is the full and complete amount that Buyer is obligated to pay for the Loans, Buyer represents that it has not incurred any obligation for broker's commissions or finder's fees in connection with this transaction.

ARTICLE 14 CORPORATE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

If applicable, Seller has delivered to Buyer an original certificate of resolution of the Board of Directors of Seller, authorizing Seller to enter into this Agreement and any and all transactions contemplated hereunder and stating that said resolution is in full force and effect as of the date of the Agreement.
